PERKINS RE-ELECTED! HA! HA! HA!

THE CASE OF YOUTSEY.

The movement set on foot by Mrs. Kate Brown, of Frankfort, which looks to the pardon of Henry E. Youtsey, would seem to be rounded upon principles of justice, humanity and public policy. Youtsey was an obscure stenographer when he got into trouble. He was drawn into it by environment and circumstance. Previous to his connection with the conspiracy which occasioned his conviction he was a young man of unblemished moral character.

He has served thirteen years in the Frankfort prison, which is twice as long as the average life prisoner serves. During these years, in addition to his daily labors in the prison, he has given his evenings as a teacher in the night schools of the penitentiary, as well as his leisure time on Sundays, doing all within his power for the improvement of his fellows. Three times he has been taken out of prison on orders of court and used as a witness for the Commonwealth. It is contended that the Commonwealth is thus in some sort committed to giving him consideration.

His application has been endorsed by the Confederate Veterans at Pewee Valley, the great majority of the Senators and Representatives in at least two Legislatures, and lately seconded by the delegates to the State Christian Endeavor convention which met this year at Frankfort.

Certainly it would seem that he has been punished enough. The men mainly guilty are all at large. One of them, convicted by three separate juries, sits in the Congress of the United States. It would seem that to leave this poor wretch further in prison is to defeat, not to serve the ends of justice, and the Courier-Journal joins Mrs. Kate Brown in her timely and Christian application to the Governor for clemency already too long delayed.—Courier-Journal.

United States Department of Labor has received request for 85,000 men to help with crops in the Southwest.

THE PRIME CAUSE OF HARD TIMES.

The following is an extract from an address recently delivered by F. A. Vanderlip, president of The National City Bank of New York:

"The particular men who happen for the moment to be occupying official positions in Washington and elsewhere, and who are laying unbearable hardships upon the proper development of business in the United States, are not perhaps primarily to blame. The blame lies back of them in an ill informed and frequently unfair state of public opinion. We have had a period of magazine and political muckraking which has brought about a condition where business success is looked upon as a crime, where the man who has demonstrated that he can manage his business well is excluded from public counsel, and where no small part of our government affairs have been put into the hands of men who would be incompetent successfully to manage modest business affairs.—Hamilton Republican-News.

FOOLISH PHILOSOPHY.

A homely girl is just as nice to kiss as a pretty girl—in the dark.

At the age of 20 a girl thinks she ought to score in a love affair.

It's easier to induce a man to accept a favor than take a joke.

If a girl has shapely ankles her skirts never drag in the mud.

A financier may be a get-rich-quick promoter who gets by with it.

A fat man reminds one of a bay window; a fat woman of a bale of hay.

As some men see it, Hymen's altar looks a good deal like the stool of repentance.

It has just about gotten so in this country that the circus lady who does stunts on a trapeze is considered over-dressed.

Just to look at a grown man you never would guess that he was once considered eligible to enter for first prize at a baby show.

Can it be possible that the reason Cupid goes around armed with a bow and arrows is because he thinks he is the fool killer?

GENTLE HINT TO WINDY PREACHERS.

One day a visiting clergyman, who was to preach before the students at Yale University, asked how long he was expected to talk.

"Of course, we put no limit upon you," replied President Hadley, with his usual pump-handle gesture, but we have a feeling here at Yale—that no souls—are saved—after the first twenty minutes.—The World's Work.

The reason a woman is a woman is because she would rather pay $1.98 for an article and get a two-cent premium with it than pay $1.50 for the same article without the premium.

LUKE McLUKE SAYS.

Isn't it funny how vulgar diamonds look when you haven't the price to buy any?

Strange as it may seem, all the boisterous girls do not grow up to be manly women.

When a man wants to recover he either sends for a physician or a lawyer.

It is more blessed to give than to receive. And we are all unselfish enough to let the other fellow have the blessing.

The man who has to part his coat tails east and west when he sits down has no business laughing at what the women are wearing.

Love is a species of insanity that makes a good-looking girl worship a big, ornery, hatchet-faced, lop-eared, red-whiskered mutt and call him "Tootie."

A New York society woman brags that she uses $25,000 worth of perfumes every year. What's the matter? Are bath tubs that scarce in the Jack Rose village?

The reason why a woman sheds tears when she reads about the poor benighted Heathens who wear rings in their noses is because she never feels dressed up unless she has a couple of half pound dornicks hanging from the holes in her ears.

It is funny that the head of man a woman has occupying her air castles never looks anything like her husband.

HELP THE KIDNEYS

Maysville Readers Are Learning The Way.

It's the little kidney ills—The lame, weak or aching back—The unnoticed urinary disorders—That may lead to dropsy and Bright's disease.

When the kidneys are weak, Help them with Doan's Kidney Pills. A remedy especially for weak kidneys.

Doan's have been used in kidney troubles for 50 years. Endorsed by 30,000—people—endorsed at home.

Proof in a Maysville citizen's statement.

W. P. Lynch, 127 W. Third St., Maysville, Ky., says: "My kidneys were weak and the passages of the kidney secretions were scanty and painful. Having used Doan's Kidney Pills before, I again got a box and they quickly restored my kidneys to a normal condition."

Mr. Lynch is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Lynch had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c. all stores.
